ONLINE REFRESHER COURSE: INDIAN LANGUAGES

(DATE: 27-06-2022 TO 10-07-2022)

Objectives The condition of human life has undergone a complete turmoil after the unfortunate spreading of COVID-19 in different countries of the world. This new threat for which the mankind was not mentally prepared has shattered all hopes, aspirations and safe life ideologies. That has naturally found its reflection in the language and literature of post covid era. The objective is to see what changes have taken place in literary works and in the language of the new literary works.

The NEP has certain guidelines and expectations from the Indian languages and literature departments. Language has to connect and nourish different cultures of mankind. The object of this refresher course is to focus on how Indian Languages and literature can perform the role of connecting and nourishing different cultures.

One more objective is to see how translations can perform the role of nourishing cultures and in studies in higher education.
