Announcement

Online Refresher Course: History & Culture

(DATE: 20/11/2023 TO 03/12/2023)

Objectives: To impart latest research in the fields of history and culture. To help the participants identify major research areas in history and culture. To help them tap new sources, including digital, for research. To create awareness about research projects and availability of research grants or fellowships. To inculcate research ethics and to help them understand research method of history, interpret sources, and effective writing.

Coverage: It will cover History and Culture of India from earliest times to present but keeping with the recent developments. It will include talks on social, cultural, religious history of India as well as architectural, sculptural, and linguistic history of India. It will be ideal for the teachers of history and culture but also for those of allied disciplines like archaeology, sociology, and literature.

Pedagogy: The teaching will be primarily through lectures: it will engage lectures of 1.30 hours each by subject experts with the help of, if needed, audio-visuals. At the same time, it requires the participants to write project proposals, make reviews, and to take exams at the end of the course. The attendees are also required to partake in classroom discussions and to give a small ten-minute presentation on the theme given to them.
